

Dr Sonja M Soeterik HCPC Registered Clinical Psychologist AFBPsS C Psychol

Consultant Clinical Psychologist (Neuropsychology & Rehabilitation)

Clinical Director Neurolink Psychology

Dr Sonja Soeterik is a Consultant Clinical Psychologist and the Clinical Director at Neurolink Psychology. Sonja has a special interest in so called 'hard to assess' clients with physical, sensory, communicative, behavioural challenges and people with prolonged Disorders of Consciousness. She provides expert evidence in Civil Litigation and Court of Protection cases for adults after brain injuries. She is a member of the British Psychological Society Mental Capacity Advisory Board and is involved with the development of guidance for the profession on issues of mental capacity and best interests decision making and teaches in on both Doctoral Clinical Psychology and post doctoral clinical neuropsychology training courses. In her substantive clinical role, Sonja provides neuropsychological assessment and neurorehabilitation for people with brain injuries, supporting them, their families and professional teams.